ST. MARY'S OF MICHIGAN SETON COVE SPIRITUALITY CENTER

Situated in a peaceful setting in Saginaw's "Grove," on the banks of picturesque Lake Linton, St. Mary's of Michigan Seton Cove Spirituality Center serves as an interfaith center for spiritual formation and renewal, with a focus on spirituality in the workplace. The center is named in honor of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, the founder of the Daughters of Charity in the United States. Its many amenities include comfortable meeting/gathering rooms, quiet spaces for contemplation and meditation, a chapel and a labyrinth.

Seton Cove is used by St. Mary's of Michigan associates and affiliates, volunteers and physicians as a place to de-stress, relax and rejuvenate. Programs are also extended to the community.

Now to be added to the amenities of Seton Cove is a SERENITY GARDEN

Taking advantage of a stand of trees and flowering bushes to the south of Seton Cove, the Serenity Garden will provide an ideal outdoor area conducive to reflection and contemplation. Plans may include additional trees, bushes and flowers, a paver-stone walkway, benches and a pond complete with a waterfall. Construction of the Serenity Garden will be paid for entirely by donated funds.

Many members of the St. Mary's of Michigan community have experienced the healing and rejuvenation intended by the creation of Seton Cove. And numerous people have asked for ways to enhance Seton Cove as a way to memorialize friends and family members.

Here are a number of ways memorial gifts for the Serenity Garden may be made:
